

A7: High-level architecture. Privileges.

Web resources specification

The architecture of the web application to develop is documented indicating the catalogue of resources and the properties of each resource, including: references to the graphical interfaces, and the format of JSON responses. This page presents a documentation for EventSS, including the following operations over data: create, read, update, and delete.

1. Overview

An overview of the web application to implement is presented in this section, where the modules are identified and briefly described. The web resources associated with each module are detailed in the individual documentation of each module.

M01: Authentication	Web resources associated with user authentication, includes the following system features: login/logout, registration and credential recovery.
M02: Users	Web resources associated with users and their individual profile management, including view and edit personal information, add friends, user search and notifications.
M03: Events	Web resources associated with events such as CRUD actions on an event, search events, invite and remove participants and CRUD posts.
M04: Administration and Static Pages	Web resources associated with administration and static pages, such as view and ban users, view and eliminate events and about page.

2. Permissions

This section defines the permissions used in the modules to establish the conditions of access to resources.

PUB	Public	Group of users without privileges.
USR	User	Authenticated user that can update their profiles and create or join events.
OWN	Owner	Group of users that have privileges regarding their events.
PRT	Participant	Group of users that can rate and create posts on the event they've been at.
ADM	Administration	Group of administrators.

3. Modules

This section documents each web resource of each module, indicating the URL, HTTP methods, the possible parameters, interfaces with the user (referring to the A3 artefact) — or JSON responses in the event of APIs.
